What is an Ontario Community Newspaper?

- ▶ Community Newspapers are leaders in their communities. They care about their readers and the continued growth and economic development of their towns and cities.
- ▶ Our members are progressive publishing companies offering their readers and advertisers Community Newspapers, directories, special sections, Web sites, printing operations, specialty magazines and more.
- ▶ Community Newspapers are the soul of their communities. Their weekly distribution, up to 5 times per week, has a first edition circulation of 5.1 million for our member newspapers.
- ▶ Circulations ranging from The Hornepayne Jackfish Journal's 300 and to the Mississauga News' total weekly circulation of 360,000.
- ▶ 43% of our members circulate less than 5,000 copies weekly with an average of 24 pages.
- ▶ Half are paid circulation – the remainder have controlled circulation or free distribution to most households in their communities.
- ▶ Ontario distribution includes approximately 150 multicultural community newspapers, operating mainly from the GTA. These newspapers primarily serve the same role as English language newspapers, yet their distribution is over a larger geographic area to reach individuals of a specific heritage.

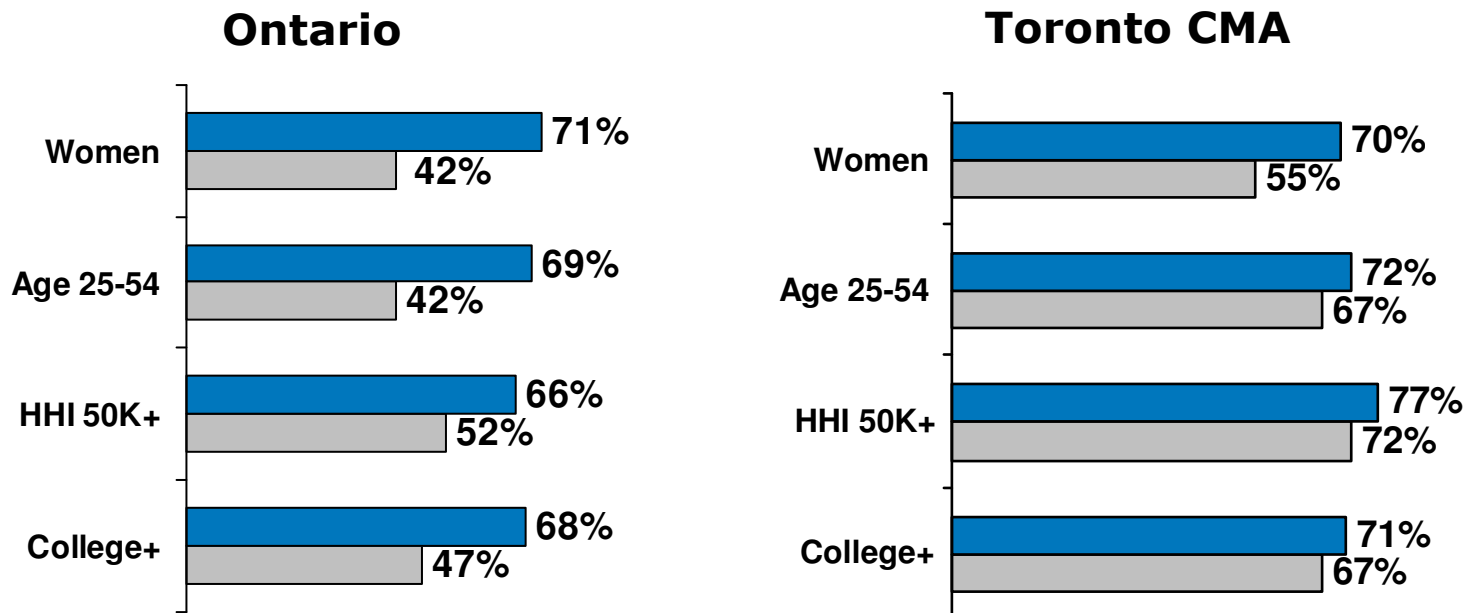

Readership Overview

% Reach by Demographic Sector (Ontario/Toronto CMA)

- ▶ Readership of weekday Community Newspapers is higher than readership of weekday dailies across key demographic sectors.

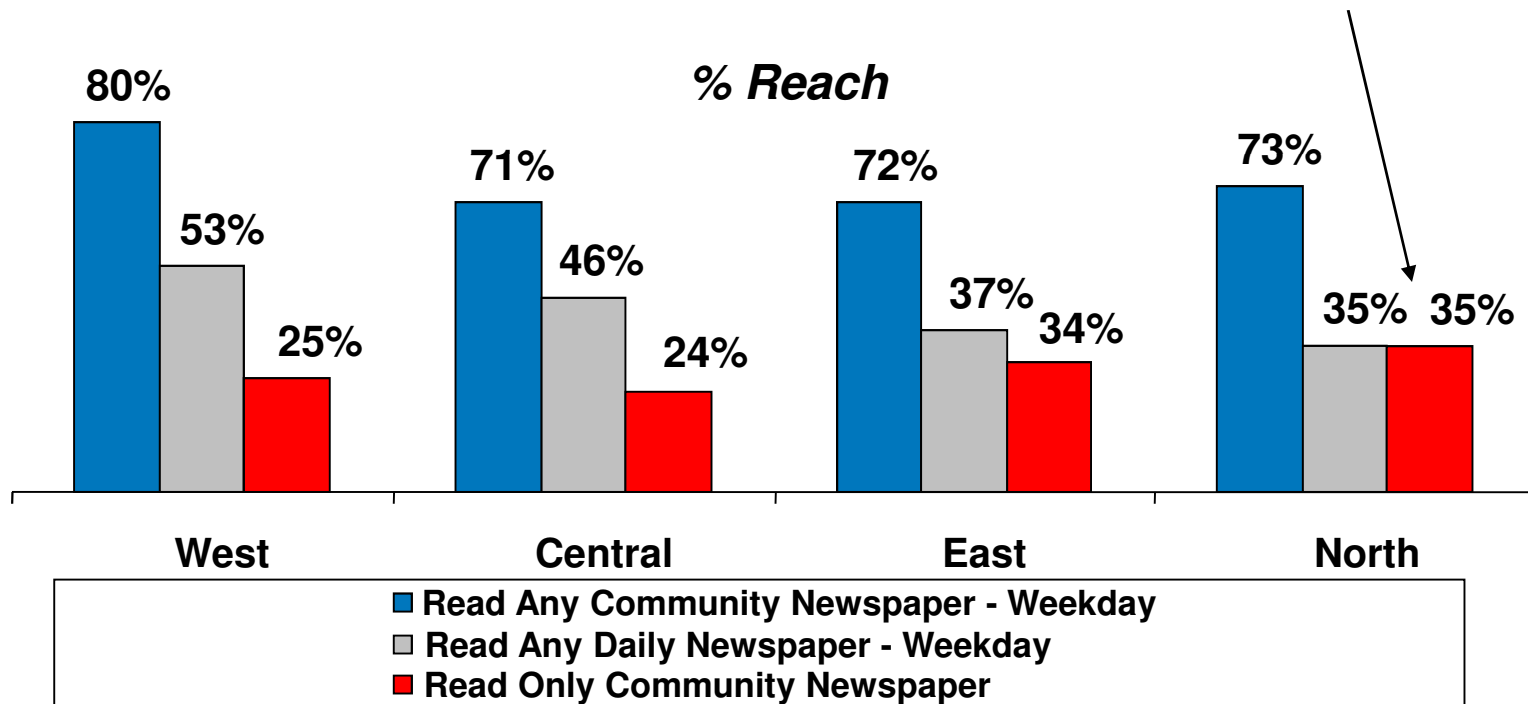

Readership Overview

Regional Coverage

- ▶ Community Newspapers outperform daily newspapers across all regions.
- ▶ Exclusive readership is the strongest in the Northern region.
