Winter fun forecasted for Pakenham Frost Festival

BY STAFF

Wipe away those January blahs by taking in several winter-themed activities at this year's 2017 Pakenham Frost Festival Jan. 19 to 28.

The festival, sponsored annually by the Pakenham and District Civitan Club and Municipality of Mississippi Mills, will mark its 52nd year in 2017 and began as a way to bring families together in a winter carnival atmosphere. This year, events unfold over two weekends with some weekly activities thrown in.

Festivities get underway Thursday, Jan. 19 with a Movie Night at Pakenham Public School. Doors open at 6 p.m. with the movie getting underway at 6:30 p.m. Cost to attend is $2, which includes the movie, popcorn and a drink. Also that same evening is 6-hand euchre in the upper hall of the Stewart Community Centre. This begins at 7 p.m. and the cost to enter is $5 per person. Admission includes a light snack and prizes.

Friday, Jan. 20 events really get into full swing with the crowning of Little Miss and Mister Pakenham at the community centre at 7:30 p.m. Until 9 p.m. on the ice, families can enjoy kids races and skating, while upstairs in the upper hall from 6 to 8:45 p.m. will be wine and beer tasting. Come and enjoy a variety of samples from local vendors for only a toonie a taste.

After the tastings, the upper hall transforms into a concert venue for Duke Wright and the Bob Seger Tribute Band, performing from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Advance tickets are recommended and are available at Nicholson's Store for $20 per person. They will be $25 at the door. A free shuttle service is also being offered within the Pakenham area from midnight to 1 a.m., compliments of Barr Bus Lines Ltd. Those wishing to take advantage of the
