Comedian, juggler coming to Drayton Entertainment venues during March Break

CAMBRIDGE - Acclaimed juggling sensation Charles Peachock will be throwing caution to the wind this March Break – before catching it and doing it all again! Families will be doubled over in laughter as Peachock showcases his talents in the show Catch the Impossible. This event will be on stage at the Drayton Festival Theatre on March 10 at 1pm and 4:pm, Hamilton Family Theatre Cambridge on March 11 at 10:30am and 1:30pm, and St. Jacobs Country Playhouse on March 12 at 10:30am and 1:30pm.

Spring break fun

“For parents looking for new and exciting things to do this Spring Break, entertaining the kids has never been easier,” said Drayton Entertainment artistic director Alex Mustakas.

“Catch The Impossible is a terrific show for the whole family to enjoy together.”

What sets Catch the Impossible apart from other kid-friendly entertainment is Peachock’s unique and daring artistic routines, theatre officials state.

“Armed with a collection of one-of-a-kind props and original concepts, he seamlessly weaves together mesmerizing juggling acts, injecting each performance with sidesplitting, crowd-pleasing moments that leave audiences incredulous,” Peachock has appeared a record six times on America’s Got Talent and has performed around the globe.

He remains the only juggler in the world to have earned the prestigious honour of being featured in People magazine.

Performance running time is 80 minutes, with no intermission.

Team Addy – A large crowd of all ages turned out at the Forge X Athletic Training Centre in Fergus on Saturday morning, where Forge X owners, Karen and Mitch Johnson hosted a family workout in support of Team Addy and to raise money for sarcoma cancer research. Addison (Addy) Hill died on July 10, 2022, after a difficult and inspirational battle with Angiosarcoma. She had just turned 14. Families enjoyed a fun workout while raising money to support Team Addy and sarcoma cancer research at SickKids Hospital. Mom, Jessica, and Dad, Dave Hill were on hand to thank the crowd and to participate in the workout. Last year the event raised over $3,000. Photos by Duncan Hossack
