ST. CATHARINES – Disgraced former priest Donald Grecco will be heading back to a correctional institute after being sentenced to three counts of 18 months, to be served concurrently, for his molestation of three boys who were once a part of his parish.

Grecco was sentenced Tuesday at the Robert S. K. Welch Courthouse in downtown St. Catharines by Ontario Superior Court Justice Joseph Nadel, who didn't mince his words when addressing the former priest.

"Some people say 'well, you're an old man now' and I should take into account your age, but you gave no consideration for the young age of the boys you abused. I don't mean to
